

aturday Student Dance o Provide Loan Fund

"Brigadoon," the imaginary Scottish paradise, will be the theme of this year's Sophomore Loan Fund Ball. The annual fund-raising dance will be held Saturday at 9 p.m. in the Fieldhouse and Smith Family Living Center. Gary Smith's orchestra will play in the Fieldhouse while the S's perform in SFLO.

There are no admission charges for the dance, but a one dollar ticket is suggested by the Fund committee. The "Do-a-Dance" principle is being used because the musicians will furnish the bands—primary cost of any dance—donations are taken for a day's cause.

The time of the dance has been changed to 9 p.m. because of the General Priest's session of BYU Stake conference which will be held in the Fieldhouse at 7:30 p.m. The musicians will be paid by the Fund from the Recording Industries Trust Fund, obtained from Local 272, American Federation of Musicians. This enables the sophomores to raise more money into the Loan fund. The Sophomore Loan Fund is a loan for students who otherwise have to drop out of school because they have no money.

Instead of having a queen for this year, the committee is planning the idea that every student in attendance is a queen.

nior Writers Attend Meet Y Saturday

Wallentine, Salt Lake bureau chief for United International, will be the featured speaker Saturday morning at the 23rd annual Utah's Journalism Conference at Brigham Young University.

Approximately 700 students, representing Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, and Nevada, will be in attendance, according to R. Neal, conference chairman. The journalists from the various publications will speak in shops and roundtable sessions and will emphasize the theme of the conference, "Service to Journalism." The registration and the opening will be held in the Jos. Smith Auditorium with debates and workshops beginning at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Smith Family Living Center. A nighttime variety show will be shown and tours of the journalism facilities will be conducted. Exhibits of student interest will be set up at the keynote session, Richards.

mocrats Not For Socialism' athes Assures Forum Crowd

By Ray Geigle
The Utah State University Political Writer is criticizing the country's young people of the fear of hunger and want," said Senator Smithers of Florida in a political assembly of the young Wednesday in the Fieldhouse. Democratic Senator from Utah denied the Republican that the Democrats are the left lane to Socialism and the audience that Democrats were strongly in support of equal rights of individuals that every man has the right to a good job, food and shelter, and the other basic needs. "I have more of the world's food than any one assembled in one place and at any one time," said Smithers in reference to the economic condition of the United States.

Slayer's 'Gal' Denies Guilt; U.S., Britain Map Nuclear Ban

by United Press International
LINCOLN, Neb. — Carl Ann Fugate's attorney said Monday the only way the 15-year-old girl could have stopped the "horrible sequence" of her boyfriend's murders "would have been to become the 12th victim."

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The United States and Britain were reported Wednesday night to have accepted tentatively an Indian compromise formula calling for "discontinuance forthwith" of nuclear weapons tests with controls to be worked out as quickly as possible.

VATICAN CITY — Pope John XXIII Wednesday night set next Tuesday as the date for his ordination with the three-tiered tiara of the supreme and sovereign pontiff of the world's half-billion Roman Catholics.

"Our economic medicine chest is full," he said as he told the group that the Democrats have taken the initiative in aiding the economic emergency. He addressed the Republicans by saying "He who seeks to hold onto the present will lose the future," and continued by saying "we are a party of young men and young ideas." Smithers told of several instances throughout the country where leading Democrats have been young men, including Utah's Democratic candidate for Senator, Attorney Frank Moseley. He said that the basic differences in the two parties was that the Democrats did not fear the future, but looked forward to it with anticipation and confidence. The Republicans, he said, look into the future with an unnatural caution and as a "potential booty trap."

'L.A. Smog Pills' Trigger For Friday Assembly Plot

"Trigdergoon," the Sophomore Loan Fund Assembly will begin at 10 a.m. on Friday in the Fieldhouse.

The assembly will begin Loan Fund activities which will climax Saturday night at the Sophomore Loan Fund Ball, "Brigadoon."

The scene of the assembly opens in a small western town to the tune of "Trigdergoon," an original song and dance routine. Percy Penrod, played by Bill Segal, plans to stir up trouble with scientific methods. Penrod is manufacturing "Los Angeles smog pills."

He is discovered before he can put his plot in action by two visiting Scottish scientists—Clair Bybee and Jim Judd. Weather control on the stage may be a problem near the end of the assembly.

Authentic costumes and cowboys dancing a Scottish jig will add zest to the assembly.

Dorothy Neilson wrote the script for the assembly. Kathy Van Wagner is assembly chairman and Bill Harris is in charge of production. Perrin Walker designed the sets and Steve Neath and Dave Felshaw directed set construction.

'Penrod' to Start Run Monday As Season's First Youth Play

"Penrod," Booth Tarkington's classic version of "Pek's Bad Boy," will be presented Nov. 3 to 5 in College Hall on lower campus.

This play is the first of the 1958-59 season of Brigham Young University Youth Theatre productions.

Performances will be given morning and afternoon on the three days. The admission charge is 15 cents for children and 25 cents for college students and other adults.

Self-appointed "detective" Penrod Schoenfeld and his close friend Sam upset the household when they start to "shudder" Margaret Schoenfeld's beau whom the youngsters consider a "hoss thief."

Penrod continues the mischievous detective work until he makes the boyfriend so nervous that he betrays himself as a racketeer.

Kam-Lynn Kay Jenkins plays Penrod and Jackie Evans is his friend Sam. Penrod's parents will be played by Var Galey and Rosalie Erickson. Julia Harmon will be seen as Margaret Schoenfeld.

Others in the cast are Kathy Kent, Fred Bluth, John Beach, J. R. Tritt, Andrew Lester, Mary Beth Rollo, Eleanor Brough, Sherry Lee, Les Gifford, Pete Carkulis and Margaret Laney.

After its Provo performances, the play will tour in Colorado the following weekend.

Also helping in the production are Paul Anderson, in charge of make-up, Andrea Lester, assistant director, and Nancy Briggs, co-ordinator between BYU and the schools.

Wagon Wheel Fate Rests on Saturday Fray

by Glenn Butterfield
Universe Feature Writer

Let's keep the Wagon Wheel! Don't let the "Farmers" have it. What is the Wagon Wheel, and why so much concern? The wheel is an exchange trophy and Brigham Young University wants to keep it.

Blue Key Sponsored
History has it that back in 1948 the members of the Blue Key National Fraternity at BYU dug up an old wagon wheel and told the Utah State University at Logan that the winner of the Cougar-Aggie game each year would keep the trophy. The wheel has become a strong impetus in the yearly game and one of the most prized trophies.

So far BYU has won the wheel only three years out of the ten, in 1950, 1951 and 1957.

Each year a small silver plaque with the score of the game is mounted on the rim of the wheel, then the winner takes it home.

Franksters Display Wheel
So far very few people on the BYU campus have seen the trophy. This year it was moved from its resting place to a more "prominent position" Wednesday morning by misguided pranksters, but it will be displayed in a much more befitting manner Monday if the Cougars can beat the Farmers.

The Aggies chain it around their flag pole when they are in possession of it. The Blue Keys have a project in the planning that will allow all to see it. If the Cougars win Saturday's game, a show case for the wheel will be constructed and will occupy a space in the Smith Fieldhouse.

WHEEL BABES—Pretty misses, Sheila Black and Chris Allred display 'Wagon Wheel' trophy presently in good hands at BYU. The trophy's fate will be decided by the outcome of Saturday's BYU-Utah State University game.

Journalism Dept. To Post Bulletins From UPI Wires

Two aids for helping students keep posted on important news developments are being furnished on the campus this quarter by the Brigham Young University journalism department.

News bulletins selected from the United Press International wire which serves the journalism department and Daily Universe are posted at 9 a.m. daily in the Student Service Center just east of the Post Office area. These bulletins include national, world and sports news reports.

On a second bulletin board in the southeast hall of the North Building, the department posts each week an illustrated map published by News Map of the Week, Inc. The week's top news events are keyed on a large wall map, with accompanying summaries of significant news highlights.

HAUNTED HOUSE, ANYONE?—Val Norn and Brickr members are carefully guarding their domain for their Halloween party Friday. Here DeRay Norton, Jeanna Cram, Jill Scott, JoAnn McGinnis, Jean Sexsmith and Paul Driggs keep watch.

osts in Goblins.

Spooky Air Prevails at Party

An old haunted house complete with goblins, ghosts, and scarecrows will set the animated pace of the Brickr-Val Norn Halloween exchange. The party will be held in the traditional Halloween spirit on "All Hallow's Eve."

Decorations for the event will include jack-o'-lanterns hanging by the air, a chuck wagon filled with pumpkins, and a graveyard. Hanging from the porch will be four bodies and several skeletons will be used to complement the spooky theme. A special highlight for the evening will be the "Witches Black Ceremony" which will feature the brewing of a secret potion by three experienced witches. The brew, along with skin pies and candy apples, will serve as refreshments for the guests.

The prevailing atmosphere will be simulated by the telling of ghost stories, apple dunking, the singing of halloween songs. Entertainment will be provided by a fortune teller from Tecumseh Park who will look into the future of all willing participants.

Costumed characters can gain admittance to the obsolete dwelling only through the possession of one jack-o'-lantern. Prizes will be given for the most original costume.

Baby Redskins Invade Gato Lair As Favorites

For the first time in three years Brigham Young University's freshman squad will play the role of underdog as they host powerful, talent-laden University of Utah Paopoes 2:30 p.m. in Cougar Stadium.

BOTH TEAMS have garnered one triumph in the early frosh play. The Baby Indians routed over Dixie Junior College last week, 32-14, whereas the Killers smashed the Utah State Rams, 34-14.

Upwards of 3000 fans are expected to see the Gatos defend their Beehive State supremacy. The Cougar plebes have been the best frosh gridiron team in Utah for the past two seasons.

But things may be a little tougher this year for the Cougar frosh.

The Ute greenbacks roster totals almost 50 former high school stars, whereas BYU has a meager squad of 30, only 18 of whom are on scholarships.

"We know we're underdogs," said BYU frosh mentor Tom Verbonats, "but we're not conceding anything. Even though this is a small squad, they're great in spirit and desire."

PAPOOSE COACH Pres Summerhays was "not satisfied" with his squad's victory over Dixie. "There were few bright spots," he reported. "Our blocking and tackling was not sharp against Dixie, and we expect to improve a great deal for the Cougars."

Utilizing his wealth of talent, Summerhays has been using the unit system and indicated that he would use this strategy to throw down the reserve poor Gatos.

Summerhays praised backs Dennis Zito, 180-pounder from Salt Lake City, and Gordy Lee, 195-pounder, Tooele, for play in the Dixie game. Impressive in the line were 195-pound center Gordon Dotson and 190-pound guard John Lynn Smith.

BYU vs Alamannia

Provo International Soccer Club will be seeking their second victory of the season, as they take on Alamannia "A" at 3:30 p.m. Saturday in Salt Lake City. The Provo squad, consisting entirely of BYU students, opened their soccer competition last Saturday with a narrow 3-2 victory over visiting Ogden.
